Though schoolrecs.com has the capability of submitting offline recommendations, note that we will only be utilizing their online submission capabilities.

Use of an Online Portal

We strongly recommend that you do not wait until February 1st to work on/submit your application. On that day, you risk encountering delays due to the high volume of users. The high volume often slows down the site's accessibility and/or will time you out of your application, deleting your responses or failing to submit the application altogether. We will not extend the deadline due to portal issues.
